WHOOPING COUGH AGAIN APPEARS

Dozen Cases of Children's Disease
Make their Appearance and Further Spread is Anticipated. Houses are all Placarded.

Yellow placards, announcing that whooping cough is present, have appeared on the houses of a dozen or more Gettysburg residents during the past few days and the disease, usually a mid-winter visitor to Gettysburg every few years, bids fair to spread to a larger number within the next few weeks.

The disease made its first appearance about six weeks ago when one case was reported. No further outbreak was reported until a week ago when more cases started to appear and now a number of homes have some little patient suffering from the disease which, though generally not serious in children, causes much discomfort.

The Board of Health is taking the customary precautions in diseases of this character. The houses are placarded merely as a warning and the patients, if well enough, are allowed to go about the streets when necessary but are warned not to attend school or go to any other place of public gathering. The other children in the family are not affected by the placarding and are allowed to go on with their school work.

Last year about this time the measles epidemic was in full swing but there has been no appearance of this sickness here this year.

AWARDED $3970.20

Western Maryland Brakeman Wins His Suit Against Company.

The jury in York County Court awarded Ivan R. Hartman the sum of $3,970.20 damages in his suit against the Western Maryland Railway company for the loss of the lower part of a leg and foot, in an accident which occurred on the early morning of November 8, 1912, at a point on the road of the railway company about three-fourths of a mile west of New Oxford. This was the first case tried in York county in which the act of congress which allows an employee to recover for injuries caused by the negligence of a fellow employee, while engaged in interstate business, was invoked. The train on which Hartman was working at the time of the accident was enroute between Gettysburg and Port Covington, Md., hence interstate and the United States law applied.

EARLY MORNING ARRESTS MADE

Sheriff, County Detective and Chief of Police Descend on Farm and Capture Pair at Three O'Clock in the Morning. Both in Jail.

At three o'clock this morning two important arrests were made by Sheriff Thompson, Detective Wilson and Chief of Police Emmons, when Leo Darr, fugitive, and John Sponseller, Jr., wanted for larceny in Hanover, were caught several miles south of town.

The three officers arrived at the home of Miss Sue Forney shortly before three o'clock and aroused the family. Sponseller had been employed at the Forney farm and Darr took refuge with him after he left town last Monday. Young Darr was wanted as a witness in the case against the older Sponseller who is accused of receiving goods that Darr had stolen. Darr is also to come up for sentence upon the conclusion of the case against the older Sponseller.

The younger Sponseller is wanted by Hanover officers on a charge of larceny. Detective Wilson was advised some time ago to be on the lookout for him and the early morning raid secured two much wanted prisoners.

The return to town was quickly made and at four o'clock both were in the county jail. The Hanover authorities will be notified by Mr. Wilson. Young Darr had little to say about his arrest. He is thought to have been at the Forney place ever since his sudden departure from town on Monday. Miss Forney lives about two miles below Greenmount.

MANY TOWN CATS NEVER TO RETURN

Annual Clean-up of Town Cats Made by John Warner who Gets all Kinds, Colors and Sizes Guaranteed They Won't Come Back.

This is Gettysburg's day for the riddance of undesirable cats. Many a happy purring pussy left her home this morning on a trip to parts unknown, and of all those who were spirited away not one will ever earn the title of the cat that "came back". On Wednesday this local appeared in the columns of The Times:

CATS: if you have a cat you don't want notify me before Friday and I will get it. John Warner, 145 West High street.

The insertion of the local met with the greatest success for the advertiser. Large cats and small cats, gray cats and white cats, young cats and old cats, thin cats and fat cats, Tom cats and Tabby cats, were all offered to Mr. Warner who made his rounds gathering them and relieving their owners of the responsibility of providing food for their undesirable "pets" during the closing months of the winter.

Every once in so often Mr. Warner takes it upon himself to make these rounds and Gettysburg residents who have an over-supply of members of the feline family can be sure that, at stated intervals, he will visit them and make good his guarantee that, once given into his care, no cat will ever return. This was the first time he has used advertising as a means to get in touch with his patrons, for in other years he simply called upon those who in the past had been his source of supply. Now new fields have been opened and the cat supply thereby increased.

But just how can Mr. Warner be sure that not one of the cats will find him and return to its former owner? The answer is that every one is determined to pass out of this life in a perfectly painless manner. Not one will escape going sound to sleep in a small box specially prepared for it in the biological department of Gettysburg College, never again to awake. After being thus painlessly put out of the way of prowling dogs and teasing boys the cats are used for the work of the students at the local institution who later hope to take up work in medical schools and are getting their preliminary work in dissection at Gettysburg.

Miss Blocher reached Denver on Wednesday afternoon, where Mr. Harner met her and where they were married Wednesday evening by Rev. Mr. Hammon, pastor of one of the Lutheran churches in Denver. They then left for Canon City where they will reside.

Rev. Mr. Harner is a son of Mrs. Carrie Harner, of Littlestown. He graduated from Gettysburg College in 1912, and spent one year in the Theological Seminary. Owing to impaired health he could not continue his studies, and therefore accepted a charge in the West, where he has been laboring successfully since last Fall and at the same time regaining his health.

MINERS' CHARGE ANGERS GOMPERS

A. F. of L. Head Denies Union is Fossilized.

SAYS ATTACKS ARE UNFAIR

Declares He Cannot Levy Assessment
For Copper Miners and Denies Officers Are Boozing Fighters.

Indianapolis, Jan. 30.—Samuel M.
Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, defended that organization and its executive council in a speech before the convention of the United Mine Workers of America against the charges made by Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, Duncan McDonald, of Illinois, and others in the convention.

Mr. Moyer charged that if the copper strike in Michigan should be lost it would be due to the inactivity of the executive board of the American Federation of Labor.

Mr. Gompers declared it would be impossible to levy an assessment for the copper mine strikers of Michigan, and denied that the organization "is reactionary, fossilized, worm-eaten and dead," and that the executive council is made up of "boozing fighters."

After Mr. Gompers had concluded McDonald announced that he would speak to the convention, and asked the federation president if he would be in the city. He said he would remain as long as he possibly could. Mr.
Moyer will also speak.

"Taking the newspaper reports as a criticism," Mr. Gompers began, "the most important work this convention has done has consisted of attacks on the American Federation of Labor and its officers and discussing whether the president's salary shall be increased $1000 a year.

"I don't know if the charges in the newspapers are true, but it was printed, that it was declared in the convention that the American Federation of Labor is 'reactionary, fossilized, worm-eaten and dead.' Is the newspaper statement true?"

Amid loud cheers, McDonald said:
"I made those statements and said like them."

"Only McDonald answers," Mr. Gompers continued. "Of the eleven men who compose the executive council eight are teetotalers, who never touch a drop of liquor. Two of the men are moderate drinkers as any men who even take a drink. As for myself, I take a glass of beer when the day's work is done.

"I challenge any man to prove otherwise than that I am as good a man, mentally and physically, as I ever was, and I reached my sixty-fourth year last Tuesday.

"Fossilized and dead men the same, but I submit that an organization can't be these and at the same time reactionary, for that means going backwards. The history of the organization shows that it is not dead."

The speaker referred to the Rochester convention of the federation and resented that he was charged with being a "scab at heart," which he said had been made by McDonald.

"By God, that is more than a human being can be expected to stand," declared Mr. Gompers. He said he had passed over many insults, but this one could not be overlooked.

"Talk about the American Federation not raising money," he said. "You may not know that the miners only pay nine cents a year to the American Federation of Labor. That is all the other organizations affiliated with the federation pay, also."

PLAN RURAL CREDIT BANKS

Bills Introduced Following White House Conference.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Administration rural credit bills were introduced simultaneously in the senate and the house by Senator Fletcher, of Florida, and Representative Moss, of Indiana, members of the commission President Wilson sent abroad last summer to study the foreign system.

The bills are for long term farm loans. Bills for short-term loans will be introduced later.

The introduction of the bills was a sequel to the conference at the White House. The measures would establish in the treasury department a bureau of farm land banks under the direction of a commissioner and make provision for the formation of such banks in any state under federal charter and federal inspection.

Any group of farmers within a state might organize co-operative farm land banks, with power to issue bonds to raise funds from distant money markets for farm development. Operations of the individual banks would be confined within state lines, owing to the variety of state laws bearing upon land titles, taxation, foreclosure and like subjects. They would be strictly prohibited from doing a city business."

Charge Dog and Cat Traffic.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Jan. 30.—An first for vivisectional purposes and the second for cat fur, is reported to be in progress in Dutchess county. The dogs are sent to the Vassar college medical laboratory, according to antivivisectionists, while the cats are kept and then skinned.

Duke and Duchess Rescued From Wrecked Vanderbilt Yacht.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt, the Duke and Duchess of Manchester, and Lord Falconer were rescued from Vanderbilt's steam yacht Warrior, which had been pounding for hours on the rocks at Cape Aguila, near Savanilla, on the coast of Colombia. Taken on the vessel in rain and fog by the crew of the Frutera, of the United Fruit company's line, they were transferred to the Almirante, a New York bound steamship. The Warrior went on the rocks in a dense fog.
The yacht was steaming ahead at top speed when the lookout's cry of "Breakers ahead!" gave warning of danger. There was no chance to steer clear. Scraping along a rock or so, the vessel struck the rocks, and then sheered off, finally resting on the ground.

SUED FOR DIVORCE, MAN KILLS HIMSELF

Charles A. Baake Dies by Gas in Atlantic City.

Egg Harbor, N. J., Jan. 30.—Charles A. Baake, solicitor of the Egg Harbor Commercial bank, was found dead in bed at his boarding house in Atlantic City.

The discovery of the body was made when Baake failed to appear and a hotel employee was sent to his room, which was locked.

The odor of gas convinced the employee that something was wrong. The door was forced open and the body of Baake was found stretched out on the bed. The cracks in the room had been carefully stuffed.

Baake had for several years invested heavily in real estate which has been depreciating. This and the fact that his wife was suing for a divorce is alleged to have caused the rash act.
Baake's family had been stopping at the home of Kuchale, in Egg Harbor, when they were notified of his death.

Baake was also in charge of several local estates. Baake's wife was a member of the Peter Schem family, of Philadelphia.

New York Gunmen Planned to Kidnap Girl

EACH WAS TO GET $100

Janitor of Motion Picture Place Foiled Plot and Building Was Fired For Revenge.

New York, Jan. 30.—Angelo Sylvestro, the Sicilian, was convicted in four minutes of attempting to dynamite a tenement house occupied by twenty-five families.

Alfred Lehman, Anthony Sadalys and Rocco Pucciarello, whose revelations at the trial of Sylvestro caused a stir, told detectives in the office of Assistant District Attorney Manley the "inside story" of the burning of the Hippodrome theater, a motion picture place in East Houston street, last August.

The theater was fired, it seems, because the janitor blocked a kidnapping scheme engineered by a gang leader. An early alarm saved the kerosene-soaked place from being entirely destroyed.

Before going into the court of general sessions, where Sylvestro is on trial before Judge Rosalsky, the three informers rehearsed their testimony.
They were questioned by Jones, Togarty and Di Martini, detectives.

"Never heard the 'inside story' of the burning of the Hippodrome theater in East Houston street, did you?" asked Lehman, in his nonchalant manner.

"It's an interesting yarn and I wouldn't mind spinning it for you. It all happened because the janitor of the place, 'Joe the Wop,' butted in on the love affairs of Giuseppe Fararra, sometimes called 'Fay,' who was the head of our gang.

"Fay" was stuck on a girl named Nellie Pecarro, who lived with her old man at 170 East Houston street. He was really on the level and wanted to marry her, but the old man couldn't see it that way. He was dead against it. 'Fay' was so mad that he called five of us together and ordered us to go up to 170 East Houston street and get into the girl's room and kidnap her. We were to bring her to a saloon at Elizabeth and Houston streets and 'Fay' was to wait for us there.

"He told us he'd give us $100 each.
We went up to the place and began to look it over. The family lived up on the fourth floor. We went back into the yard of the moving picture show and we could spot the general layout.
But 'Joe the Wop,' the janitor of the movie joint, glimpsed us and drove us away.

"When we went back and told 'Fay' this he was raving. He jumped up and down and swore that he'd get 'Joe the Wop.' 'I'll fix that buttermilk-er,' he snorted, and we knew that he meant it. Then he told us to make plans to burn the theater. The next night we met 'Fay,' who gave us some kerosene and benzine. We waited our chance and got into the theater and spread the stuff all over the floor and seats. 'Fay' was with us. He lit a newspaper and set it on fire and then we slipped out. We waited outside to watch the place burn.

"But somebody saw the blaze in a minute and an alarm was turned in and the flames put out.

"Then he gave us a bomb and told us to put it in the stoop of the house of the old man and his girl. He said it was strong enough to blow up the whole place, and he didn't care much if it did.

"If I can't have that girl, I'm sure no one else will get her," he said, and we knew that he meant it."

It is for the placing of this bomb, which failed to go off, that Sylvestro is now on trial.

STATE RELIGION FOR CHINA

Act Provides President Shall Worship
Heaven and Confucius.

Peking, China, Jan. 30.—A bill prescribing the worship of Heaven and Confucius by the president of the Chinese republic was passed by the administrative council, which took the place of the Chinese parliament, recently dissolved by President Yuan Shi Kai.

The measure was submitted to the council by Yuan Shi Kai himself. It is understood that the president's idea is to set an example to the Chinese nation, which, he thinks, needs the moral building influence of religion.

The president will worship at the temple of Confucius and at the Temple of Heaven annually, in the same way as the Manchian emperors did, but without wearing the diadem.

The diadem was proposed, but was not adopted, owing to criticism that it would be taken as another indication of monarchial designs on the part of Yuan Shi Kai.

Sayres Going to Own Home.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Mr. and Mrs.
Frank B. Sayres, the White House bride couple, plan to leave here next week for Williamstown, Mass., where they will take up their residence.
Their home has been furnished and is ready for occupancy. The president's daughter and son-in-law have been staying at the White House since their return recently from a two months honeymoon trip in Europe.

PREDICTS LUMBER FAMINE

Feeble Efforts to Conserve Forests Vain, Says Pinchot.

Philadelphia, Jan. 30.—"A lumber famine is bearing down upon us, in spite of our feeble efforts at reforestation," said Gifford Pinchot at a banquet which concluded the twenty-second annual convention of the Pennsylvania Lumbermen's association.

"The movement which has become nation-wide in its scope was started too late," said the former United States forester. "We may not live to see the dearth of timber, but the rising generation will. Private interests in the west are taking advantage of this, and are holding vast tracts of forest land till the lumber is exhausted.

"For instance, there is the Weyerhaeuser firm, with headquarters in St.
Paul, which holds timber now valued at one billion dollars, the original cost of which was $100,000,000. This bottling up of our natural resources, with its consequent effect upon the cost of living, should be stopped.

"The timber belongs to the public, and the latter should demand that the government take national forests out of it. No matter what measures are adopted," he concluded, "we cannot prevent a lumber famine. Our only hope is to mitigate it."

Governor Miller, of Delaware, and Congressman M. Clyde Kelley, of Bradford, Pa., were the other speakers at the banquet.

LOYAL TO GARRANZA, GEN. VILLA ASSERTS

Has No Ambition to Become President of Mexico.

Juarez, Mexico, Jan. 30.—General Francisco Villa, commander of the principal army of the Mexican rebel, disclaimed any intention of seeking to become president of Mexico.

"I would not be president of Mexico if it should be offered to me on a silver platter," he said. "I am a fighting man, not a diplomatist, and I have no aims or ambitions to become the ruler of Mexico. I know my limitations and I do not care to embarrass my friends who have supported me by attempting something for which I am not fitted. My whole heart is in the Constitutionalist cause, and I swear allegiance to its tenets and to General Carranza as its recognized head."

"Do you see any prospects for permanent peace in Mexico?" Villa was asked when his attention was called to Zapata and other rebel leaders who are reported as carrying on revolutionary movements of their own.

"There is only one revolutionary movement," replied Villa. "We are permitting the so-called independent bands to fight because they are helping our cause. Anything which embar-rasses the usurper Huerta helps us.
When once we triumph there will be no excuse for any more fighting. All factions will be conciliated. If any handlets remain we will quickly exterminate them."

To save the lives of twenty-five Americans and Englishmen, who are prisoners of Maximo Castillo, a bandit leader, 400 rebel cavalymen from Juarez are pursuing the several hundred bandits in the hills of western Cihuahua. The cavalymen have orders to execute Castillo.

Again Fear Castro Plot.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, Jan.
30.—According to dispatches from Coracas a report is current there that General Cipriano Castro, the ex-president of Venezuela, is in Trinidad.
Tier is said to be much concerned at the Venezuelan capital over the news.

Shoots Himself on Wife's Grave.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 30.—Walter Buchanan, a steel engraver, was found dying on his wife's grave in Hillside cemetery, where a short time before he had shot himself in the head with a pistol. He was taken to the Muhlen-berg hospital unconscious, and it is said he cannot live.

Sue For $1,200,000 Import Dues.

New York, Jan. 30.—The government brought suit here against Theodore Haviland & Co., Fifth avenue importers of china, to recover $1,200,- 000, alleged to be due on imports that were undervalued by fraudulent in-voices.

WILSON SEEKS TOPLACATE JAPAN

Wants to Show Our Friendship For Mikado's Subjects.

STILL "WATCHING" MEXICO

No Decision Has Been Made on the Question of Lifting the Embargo on Arms.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Various proposals to make the friendly attitude of the United States toward Japan clearly evident are under consideration of the president and his advisers, but nothing as yet has been formulated.

That is the status of negotiations growing out of the California alien land question as it was informally outlined at the White House. The controversy over the California legislation aimed at the Japanese is considered closed and history by the Washington government.

The fact that the administration considered as an open question whether treaties can be overridden by state laws and the contention that the California legislation has not violated any treaty, are the chief reasons, it is understood for the closing of the California incident, though the United States is anxious through other means to show Japan that no discrimination toward her subjects or unfriendly feeling is entertained by the vast majority of the American people.

The president made it clear that there was no crisis of any kind impending in the foreign relations of the United States. He let it be known that the various negotiations with Japan, Colombia, Great Britain or other nations were in no way related to one another, but separate problems.

President Wilson reiterated that the Mexican policy of the administration would continue for the present to be one of "watchful waiting." No decision has been reached on the question of lifting the embargo on arms, and no prediction was made as to when a change of policy might occur.

It was conceded at the White House that the practical operation of the embargo has been to deny munitions to the Constitutionalists from their only external source of supply, while the Huerta government has been buying abroad.

The president has pointed out to those with whom he has discussed the subject that while nations generally were showing a friendly spirit and doing all they could to prevent assistance to the Huerta regime, foreign governments could not legally stop shipment of arms. Special legislation would be required.

The United States has not asked foreign governments to impose such restrictions, and therefore has not objected to the shipment of arms from Japan or any other country. This government is convinced that whatever shipment of arms may have been made from Japan were made in no way in connection with the Japanese government.

Japan Sees Agreement.

Tokio, Japan, Jan. 30.—Hopes are expressed in official circles that a basis of understanding on the Californian alien land ownership question will be found by the American and Japanese governments, which are both actively seeking a solution.

The chief concern seems to be in regard to future legislation in America, and it is said that any new enactment unfavorable to the Japanese would be considered a serious menace to the friendship of the two countries.

Washington has endeavored to assure Japan that California would stop adopting legislation held by Japan to be discriminatory, but it is pointed out that there might be some difficulty in obtaining reasonable assurances that California would acquiesce.

DYING OF HICCUGHS

Eleven-Year-Old Girl Was Attacked Two Months Ago.

New York, Jan. 30.—Hilda Caine, the eleven-year-old girl, of Seaciff, L. I., is near death from her hiccoughs, which has lasted more than two months and has reduced the child to a skeleton.

Hilda began to hiccough on Thanksgiving Day. The attacks at first were spasmodic, but after two weeks they became almost incessant.

Physicians have been unable to do anything to check the attacks, which appear to have their origin in the stomach rather than the throat. Her doctors say that unless nature asserts herself and stops the incessant hiccoughing the child will die. They are powerless, they declare, to cope with her malady.

Smallpox in Baltimore County.

Baltimore, Jan. 30.—Twenty-three cases of smallpox, many in an advanced stage, were reported by the Baltimore county health authorities. Of this number twenty-one were found at Warren, a mill village on the Gunpowder river, fifteen miles north of Baltimore. Prompt action is being taken by the county health officials.

Blame Negro Bill Passed.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 30.—A bill prohibiting white persons from teaching in negro schools, and vice versa, was passed by the house of representatives and sent to the senate.

GOETHALS ACCEPTS ZONE GOVERNORSHIP

Canal Builder Will Take the Appointment.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Secretary of War Garrison announced that Colonel George W. Goethals had signed his intention of accepting the governorship of the Panama canal zone. Mr. Garrison intimated that Colonel Goethals' acceptance was unqualified.

President Wilson sent the nomination of Colonel Goethals to be governor of the zone after April 1, to the senate.

This is looked upon in official circles in Washington as definitely putting an end to talk of Goethals becoming police commissioner of New York city.

"I am not able to give out the terms of Colonel Goethals' acceptance at the present time," said Secretary Garrison, "but it was whole and complete. Later I shall probably be able to make an interesting statement."

"There was no mention of the police commissionership of New York, and I do not expect that Goethals will accept that post at any time in the near future."

As chairman of the isthmian canal commission, Colonel Goethals now is paid $15,000 a year. The Panama canal act fixes the salary of the governor at $10,000. Representative Britten, of Illinois, introduced a bill to amend the law to make the salary of the governor $15,000 so long as Colonel Goethals holds the office.

TWO HELD FOR MURDER

Woman and Her Mother Charged With Poisoning Former's Husband.

Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—Charged with the murder, fourteen months ago, of Floyd Keller, Mrs. Zella Keller Gerhold and her mother, Mrs. Reuben Ricker, were arrested and committed to prison here without bail.

The first named woman was Keller's wife, and since his death she married Gerhold.

Keller, a prosperous farmer, died on the night of Nov. 29, 1912, and chemical analysis developed that the stomach contained enough poison to kill two men. The case was surrounded with mystery until letters written by Mrs. Keller to Isaac Heckman came to light.

When arrested Mrs. Gerhold exclaimed: "Isaac Heckman poisoned my husband. I saw him do it. Why is he not arrested, too?"

This charge she repeated several times, and she was very bitter in her denunciation of the man for love of whom, it is alleged, she gave her husband poison.

TWO CHILDREN KILLED

Were Crushed to Death When Wagon Went Over Embankment.

Duncannon, Pa., Jan. 30.—C. E. Cook, of Newport, Pa., driver of one of the teams of the Atlantic Refining company, was seriously hurt, and two daughters, seven and nine years old, of Albert Hammaker, of Watts township, were crushed to death in Watts township.

The children were riding with Mr. Cook, when the wagon skidded on the ice covered ground and tumbled over an embankment. One horse was also killed.

Rescued in Nets From Burning Houses.

Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 30.—Sixty persons were driven from their beds, and seven firemen were injured during a blaze which swept the Broadway block on Essex street. Many occupants of apartments on upper floors were rescued in life nets.

White Slaver Gets Year.

Wilmington, Del., Jan. 30.—William Vasso, convicted in the United States court here of violating the Mann white slave act, was sentenced by Judge Bradford to a fine of $50 and one year in the New Castle county workhouse.

Here's a Thought.

It is much safer to shout with the crowd than against it. That is why the crowd makes such a noise.—Printers' Ink.

Brought to Civilization.

The latest addition to civilization is the Watwa tribe, people who lived like frogs in the unknown swamps of Lake Bangweulu, Central Africa. These swamps were quite impenetrable, and the people would not formerly allow strangers to visit their haunts. Now they have vacated the swamps, and live on dry land. They have become law-abiding, willingly pay their taxes, and even escort government officials to their old-time homes.

Instead of painting or frosting signs on rules on glass, the Montreal Tramways company uses a process similar to that of the colored transfer pictures so popular with children. These signs cost only three cents to five cents each and remain on the glass despite any number of washings.—Electric Railway Journal.

Bad Effect of Moonlight.

There is scarcely any region on this globe, from the equator to the newly found continent of the arctic circle, and the lately discovered south pole, where there is not a general belief in the powerful and deleterious effects of moonlight on fish, newly planted seeds and to a lesser extent on meat which is to become food, says a writer in the New York American.

Natural Inference.

A school teacher was reading a story to a class of very small folks, and paused at the word "lay brother," to explain their meaning. "Does any one know what 'lay brother' means?" she asked. For a moment a row of perplexed little faces looked up at her. Then one face brightened suddenly, and a small voice piped, "Yes, ma'am—it's a rooster!"—Youth's Companion.

Farm and Garden

STORING WINTER VEGETABLES

Different Vegetables Should Be Treated in Different Ways.

Enough vegetables in the fall go to waste from the average farm garden to supply the table during the entire winter. The task of storing is not difficult if one has a knowledge of the conditions best suited for storage and is willing to perform a small amount of labor.

A dry, well aired, frost proof room, cellar or sodhouse will serve the purpose. The most favorable temperature is not over 50 degrees F. Celery, cabbage and sweet potatoes should be stored in the coolest part of the room. Racks should be adjusted on which to place the storage boxes or barrels. This avoids the dangers of overheating, excess moisture and prevents decay. All vegetables should be gathered before frost, sorted and thoroughly dried before packing. For long storing preserve those of most perfect formation and firm texture. Each root or tuber should be placed a few inches apart in alternate layers with clean, dry sand. In removing those for use care should be taken each time to recover any that may be exposed. The earth for packing should be clean and dry and should be collected in dry summer season rather than after the heavy fall rains. Carrots, sweet potatoes, beets, turnips, parsnips, cabbage, celery and celery keep well stored by this method.

Vegetables less perfect in form, less firm in texture should be reserved for immediate use. These may be stored in barrels or boxes with latticed bottoms. Sweet potatoes should be well dried, wrapped in paper, packed in sand as indicated, and kept in coolest part of store room. Celery should be taken from ground on a clear day, transferred to boxes of clean, dry sand. The tops and leaf portions should not be covered, but the bleached part should be well packed in the sand and placed in the coolest part of the storage room. Cabbage and cauliflower will keep for a long time if gathered and stored with the head and roots intact. The large outside leaves should be removed. Each head should be surrounded with clean, dry straw and placed downward a few inches apart. Pack and store the same as celery.

If desired parsnips may be allowed to remain in the ground all winter. They should be covered in the fall with clean straw. After the early spring thaw they may be removed, washed and stored in a cool place. Parsley and watercress may be transported to flowerpots or boxes and kept in good growing condition throughout the winter.

Tomatoes may be stored very late in the fall if the entire vine is carefully pulled up and hung over racks in the coolest part of the frostproof room or the fruit may be picked from the vines and placed on racks several inches apart. By these methods a large portion of the green tomatoes will ripen and keep indefinitely.

If a frost proof storage place is not available, the trench method is satisfactory for storing cabbage, turnips, carrots, parsnips, salsify, beets, etc. A well drained location should be selected and the trench should be about seven feet deep. Clean straw should be filled in to the depth of about one foot. The trench may be divided in sections for each variety of vegetables as previously mentioned. In filling the trench the earth should be firmly packed and well heaped. Two boards nailed together lengthwise to form a spading roof should be placed over the top to shed rain and snow. Vegetables stored in a trench may freeze in a severe winter and remain frozen until the spring thaw. The gradual extrusion of the frost leaves the vegetables unharmed but a sudden thaw will greatly impair the texture and flavor.

The cost of vegetables grown out of season in greenhouses and available in all markets during the winter and early spring is so high as almost to prohibit their use by people of moderate means, except as a luxury. Therefore if more attention were paid in each home to the storage of a generous supply of winter vegetables the daily meals would be more easily planned, the daily diet be made more wholesome and one of the problems in the high cost of food supply would be practically overcome.—Professor M. A. Stoner, North Dakota Agricultural College.

SOME DON'T'S For Stomach and Liver Sufferers

Don't take medicine for your Stomach ailments morning, noon and night, as usually such medicines only give temporary relief and simply digest the food that happens to be in the Stomach.

Don't permit a surgical operation. There is always serious danger in operations and in many cases of Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Ailments the cure can be avoided if the right remedy is taken in time.

Don't go around with a foul smelling breath caused by a diseased Stomach and Liver, to the discomfort of those you come in contact with.

If you are a Stomach Sufferer don't think you cannot be helped. Probably worse cases than yours have been restored by Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy.

Most stomach ailments are mainly caused by a catarrhal condition. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy not only removes the catarrhal mucus but allays the chronic inflammation and assists in rendering the entire alimentary and intestinal tract antiseptic, and this is the secret of its marvelous success.

Don't suffer constantly from pain and agony and allow your stomach ailments to physically undermine your health. No matter how severe your case may be or how long you have suffered—one dose of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy should convince you that you can be restored to health again. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy has been taken and is highly recommended by Members of Congress, Justices of the Supreme Court, Educators, Lawyers, Merchants, Bankers, Doctors, Druggists, Nurses, Manufacturers, Priests, Ministers, Farmers and people in all walks of life.

Sage Tea Turns Gray Hair Dark

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.
